THE HIGHWAY TRAFFIC ACT

O. Reg. 129/62.
Demerit Point System.
Made—31st May, 1962.
Filed—4th June, 1962.

REGULATION MADE UNDER THE HIGHWAY TRAFFIC ACT

DEMERIT POINT SYSTEM

1. In this Regulation, "driver's licence" means an operator's licence or a chauffeur's licence issued under the Act.

2.—(1) When any person is convicted of an offence under a provision of an Act, Regulation or municipal by-law set out in column 1 of the Table, and if the penalty imposed by the court for the conviction does not include a period of suspension of his driver's licence, the Registrar shall record in respect of the person the number of demerit points set opposite thereto in column 2.

(2) The short descriptions in column 3 of the Table indicate for convenience of reference only the general nature of offences under the provisions in column 1 and shall not be construed to limit the offences for which demerit points are imposed.

3. If a person is convicted of an offence set out in column 1 of the Table and enters an appeal against the conviction,

- (a) the points in respect of the conviction shall be entered on the record at the time of the conviction, but no suspension under section 12 shall be applied unless the conviction is sustained on the appeal;
- (b) where the conviction is sustained on appeal, any suspension under section 12 shall be applied notwithstanding that the total points have been reduced under section 7 after the conviction;
- (c) where the conviction is quashed on the appeal, demerit points recorded in respect of the conviction shall be removed from the record.

4. If a person is convicted of two or more offences arising out of the same circumstances, only demerit points for the conviction for which the greatest number of points is imposed shall be recorded and, if the greatest number of points is equal for two or more convictions, points shall be recorded for one conviction only.

5. Where any person forfeits bail given upon a charge of an offence under a provision set out in column 1 of the Table, the Registrar shall record the forfeiture as a conviction and shall record the demerit points imposed for the conviction in the same manner as if such person were convicted of the offence.

6. Where a resident of Ontario is convicted or forfeits bail in another province of Canada or in one of the United States of America for an offence that, in the opinion of the Registrar, is in substance and effect equivalent to an offence for which points would be recorded upon conviction in Ontario, the Registrar may record the demerit points for the conviction in the same manner as if the conviction had been made or the bail forfeited in Ontario for the equivalent offence.

7.—(1) When two years have elapsed after the entry of demerit points on the record of a person, the Registrar shall strike such points from the record.

(2) When a licence has been suspended under section 12, the Registrar shall reduce the total accumulated demerit points in the person's record to seven and the points struck from the record shall be those recorded for the longest period of time.

8. When a total of six or more but less than nine demerit points have accumulated in the record of any person, the Registrar shall mail a notice to such person, at his latest address appearing on the records of the Department, of the number of points accumulated in the record, and failure to give notice under this section does not render ineffective any further proceeding under this Regulation.

9. When nine or more but less than fifteen demerit points have accumulated in the record of a person, the Registrar may require him to attend before an official of the Department for an interview and to furnish such information, evidence or material as is required to show cause why his licence should not be suspended.

10. Where a person fails to attend for an interview as required by section 9, the Minister may, after giving notice, suspend the driver's licence of such person.

11. Where the Minister is of the opinion that a person has failed to show cause under section 9 why his licence should not be suspended, the Minister may, after giving notice, suspend the licence for such period as he deems advisable.

12.—(1) Subject to subsection 2, when fifteen or more demerit points have accumulated in the record of a person the Registrar shall, after giving notice, suspend the driver's licence of such person and the licence shall not be re-instated until thirty days have elapsed from the date the licence was surrendered for the purposes of suspension under this Regulation.

(2) Where a suspension is the second or subsequent suspension imposed for accumulation of demerit points since the record last showed no demerit points, the period of suspension is six months.

13. Where a licence is suspended under this Regulation, the period of suspension is concurrent with the unexpired portion of any suspension under any other authority.

14.—(1) Any notice of suspension required to be given by this Regulation shall be given by sending it by registered mail to the person to whom the notice is required to be given at his latest address appearing on the records of the Department and notice given in accordance with this section shall be deemed to be sufficient.

(2) Where a driver's licence is suspended, the Registrar shall select an effective date for the suspension which date shall be at least six clear days after the notice is accepted as registered mail by the post office, and the effective date of the suspension shall be stated in the notice.

15. Regulation 221 of Revised Regulations of Ontario, 1960 is revoked effective the 1st day of July, 1962, but section 2 and the Table thereof continue to apply in respect of convictions registered before the 1st day of July, 1962.

16. This Regulation comes into force on the 1st day of July, 1962, and section 2 and the Table thereof apply to convictions registered on and after the 1st day of July, 1962.
